

It's time to

WAKE UP THE EARTH!

Come join us!
Parade & Festival May 7, 2022

This year parades will start at Curtis Hall, the Curley K-8 School, and the Egleston Square YMCA -- gathering at 10:30 AM. Jamaica Plain and Roxbury parades will meet at Jackson Square and continue together along Lamartine to kick off the festival at Stony Brook.

Get involved! Make costumes and carry banners with your group's message while walking with great parade bands and dancers:

PRE-PARADE WORKSHOPS AT YOUR PLACE

For $200 and up, we will send a professional multi-lingual artist to run a parade art workshop for kids, youth, and adults. Any age. Make banners, drums, or "Power of the People" puppets for your group to carry in the parade. Call Zafiro to arrange your workshop.

WORKSHOPS AT SPONTANEOUS CELEBRATIONS

45 Danforth Street, near Stony Brook Station on the Orange Line. Donations welcome.

All ages Drop-in every Thursday of April from 4 - 8 PM, plus Fridays April 22 and 29 from 4 - 8 PM. Help out with festival preparations! Create festival decorations, puppets, and fantastic costumes. Bring a group! Contact Stone (857) 249-7937.

LEARN TO WALK ON STILTS WITH ROXANA BENTES >

On Thursday April 21 and 28 from 5 to 7 PM at Spontaneous Celebrations. Any age. Donations welcome. Call Zafiro to sign up.

Please call Zafiro Patiño, Parade Coordinator at (617) 867-5201 if you plan to join a parade, want to volunteer, or need help preparing. Thanks! Gracias!
